Jonah preaching
to Ninevah

"Sometimes a man gets carried away, when he feels like he should be having his fun
And much too blind to see the damage he's done
Sometimes a man must awake to find that really, he has no-one"

Jeff Buckley

A call to the children of the age

Ever since the world was made and man rebelled God has contended with human souls concerning our state of separation because of our guilt before Him. Our very natures and actions were, and continue to be, offensive to His character (being seen in the mirror of his Law). But from the beginning a way was made for men to escape God's wrath and righteous judgement against us.

Throughout the rolling centuries of time God has called men and women to Himself to find this way and obtain new life. At certain times many came at once, and at others relatively few. In these last days only a few hear the call and come into the Kingdom. Prejudice, false worldly wisdom and religion, scorning unbelief, fear of ridicule, love of Godless things etc keeps the spiritually poor people of this age from knowing the truth and finding freedom. Left with only false hope in this present life they grub around on the surface of this world living for small, shallow things on the wide road that leads to destruction, and many shall enter therein.

This is an age of lost sheep following blindly and trustingly the philosophies of this age, brainwashed and programmed into thinking that they have no eternal responsibilities, and that their life is their own, and they are free to make a success of it by their own hand, not realizing that they live to probably one of the lowest moral standards that have existed for years, and that their so called success in this world and its ways will really be their failure.

Are you a child of this age? Leave it behind with all its false promises and emphasis on the selfishness of human show and pride. Reject its rebellion to God and conform to the cry of conscience in your own heart, however small the voice has become. Cry out to your Creator in sincere, humble prayer and be made new. Come out from among the ignorant people of this present age (as everyone who is saved once was) and no longer be part of the vast throng unknowingly dancing and singing the praises of this world and celebrating the pride of life in a mighty parade downward along that infamous wide road to the gates of hell. Can you continue to hear God's voice and reject His call? Can you listen to the opinions of those who know nothing of God and choose their ways and stand side by side with them? This keeps needy sinners from repentance and faith. Everyone needs a solution to the problem of their own sin in God's universe. The only way is Christ and His work on the cross, let Him be your substitute.
