

The Signs given to Elijah at the cave chart

1 Kings 19.8-12

"And he (Elijah) arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God. And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah? And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord. And, behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the Lord was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice."

A great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the Lord

The breaking of the law by Adam.

An earthquake

The resulting fall. An earthquake in the soul and subsequent life of mankind.

A fire

The resulting judgement and wrath upon mankind for his sin.

A still small voice

The voice of God in the gospel.
Only here is God present in love, mercy and grace.
